

The Tipico logo is displayed in white lowercase letters on a red rectangular background.

DIE SPORTWETTE.

The background of the entire advertisement is a wide-angle photograph of a large football stadium at night. The pitch is green with white markings, and several players in white and red kits are visible. The stands are filled with spectators. Along the back of the pitch, a long banner displays the national flags of Croatia, Germany, Mexico, the United States, Canada, France, and Spain. Large floodlights illuminate the stadium from above.
